Yolo Superior Court Judge Appointed to California Judicial Council

The Chief Justice of California, Tani Cantil-Sakauye recently appointed Judge David Rosenberg of Yolo Superior Court as an advisory member of the California Judicial Council for a one-year term. Judge Rosenberg was appointed because he is the President-elect of the California Judges Association, an association that represents 2,300 Judges, Justices and Court Commissioners. This is Judge Rosenberg's second appointment, he was previously appointed to the Judicial Council and served 2013-2015. Chief justice Cantil-Sakauye also re-appointed Judge Rosenberg as Chairman of the Advisory Committee on Audits and Financial Accountability of the Judicial Branch.

The California Judicial Council is the policymaking body of the California courts, under the leadership of the Chief Justice and in accordance with the California Constitution. The council carries out this mission primarily through the work of its internal committees, advisory committees, and task forces. The court is in the rare position of having two members on the council, Court Executive Officer Shawn C. Landry was appointed in 2020.

"I've always tried to live a multi-dimensional life," said Judge Rosenberg. "As I enter my 19th year as a Superior Court Judge, I'm pleased to be able to continue my service to the people of Yolo County. But I'm also gratified to be able to serve in the governance of the Judicial Branch as a member of the Judicial Council, and also to serve the Judges and Judicial Officers of California as the incoming President of the California Judges Association."

Appointed to Yolo Superior Court in October of 2003, Judge Rosenberg has been elected to office three times. He currently presides over a criminal trial department. Judge Rosenberg was elected Presiding Judge three times by his peers and was instrumental in the development of the current courthouse, completed in 2015.

Judge Rosenberg has served, and continues to serve, on multiple boards and commissions and is President of the Davis Odd Fellows #169. He is also an author, having most recently written an autobiography and, previously, a science fiction novel.

Before his appointment and election as a Superior Court Judge, Rosenberg served as a Yolo County Supervisor, as Mayor and a member of the Davis City Council, as a civil litigator in private practice, and as a senior advisor to two Governors of California. Judge Rosenberg also served previously as Chairman of the California Law Revision Commission, Chairman of the Victim Compensation and Government Claims Board (the former Board of Control), Chairman of the California State Lottery Commission, and Chairman of the Yolo-Solano Air Quality Management Commission.
